

We asked universities and higher education IT departments across North America about their priorities and key objectives, and how they've been affected by the disruption of COVID-19.

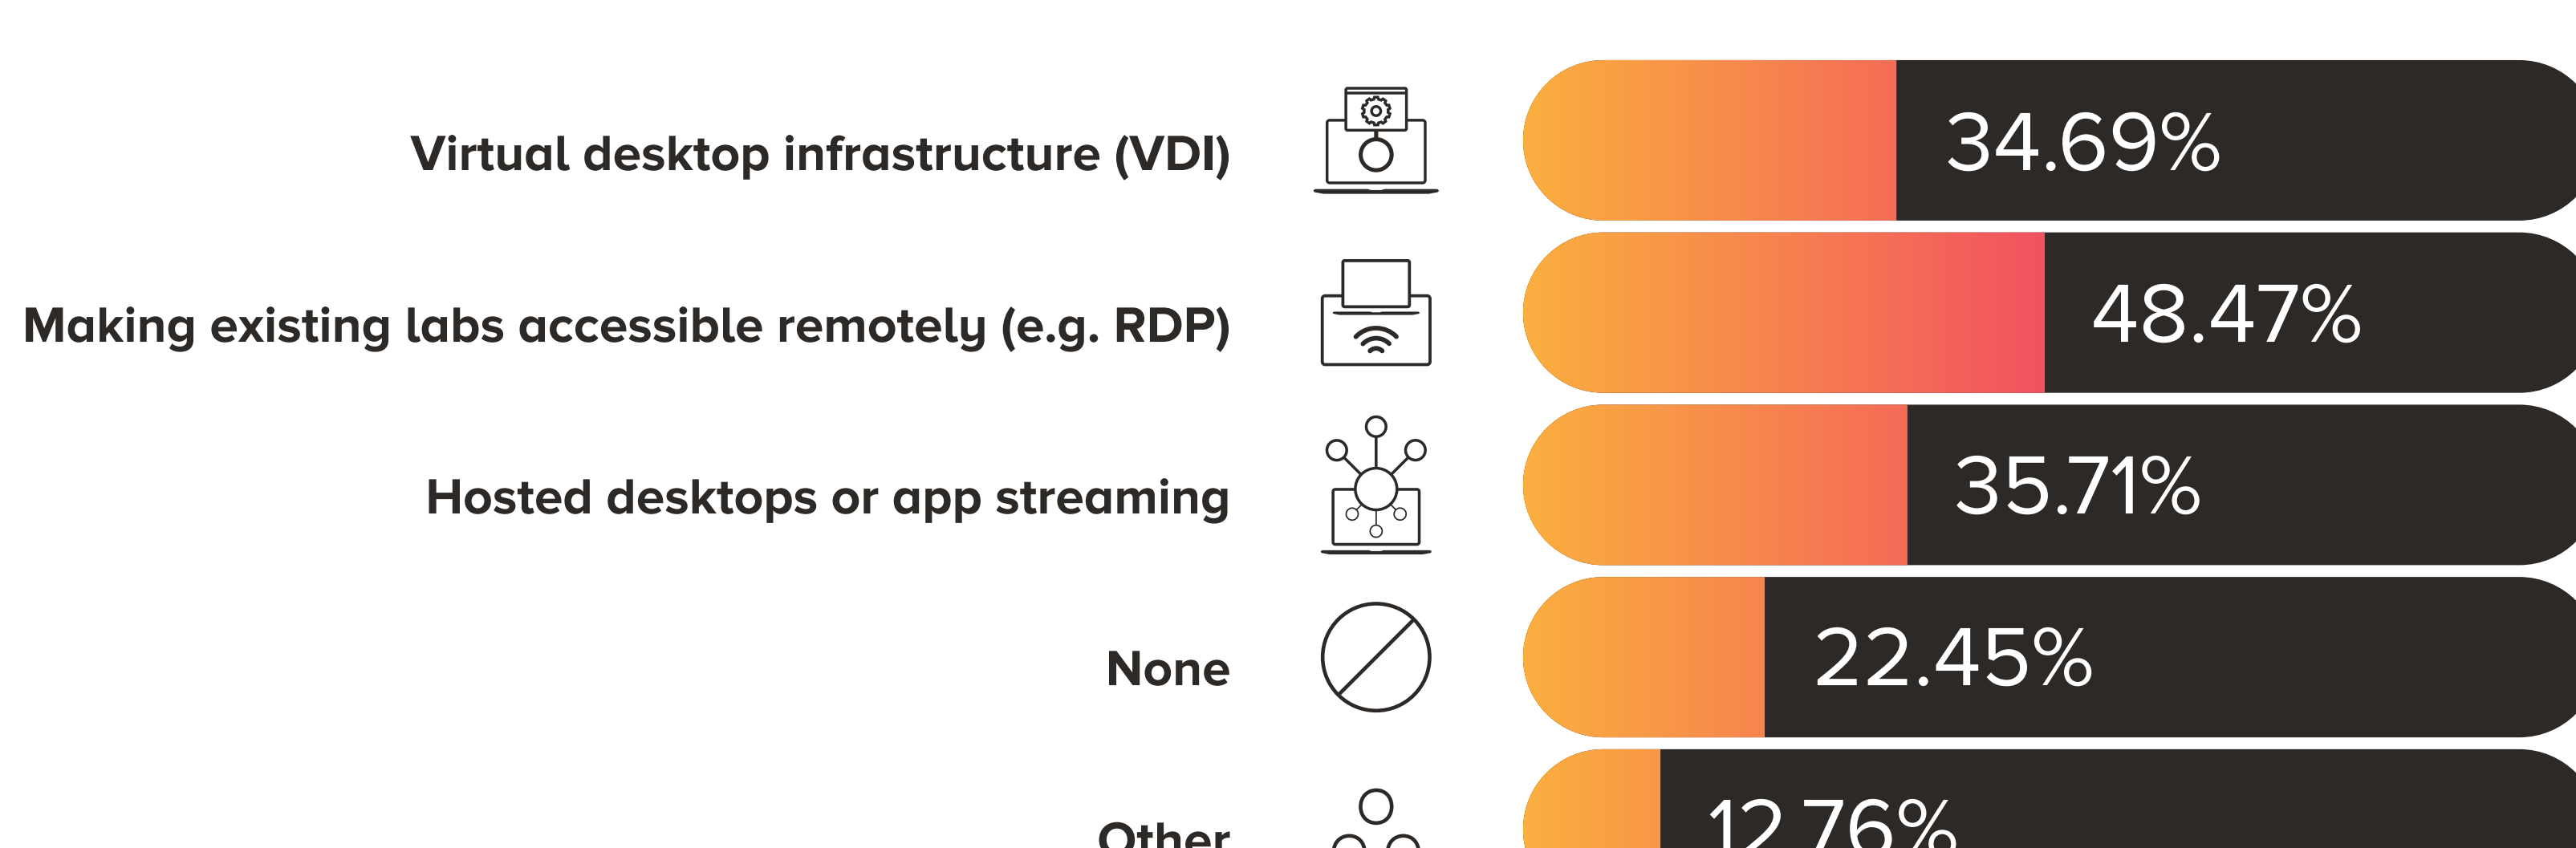

Prior to the COVID-19 outbreak, did your university use any of the following technologies?

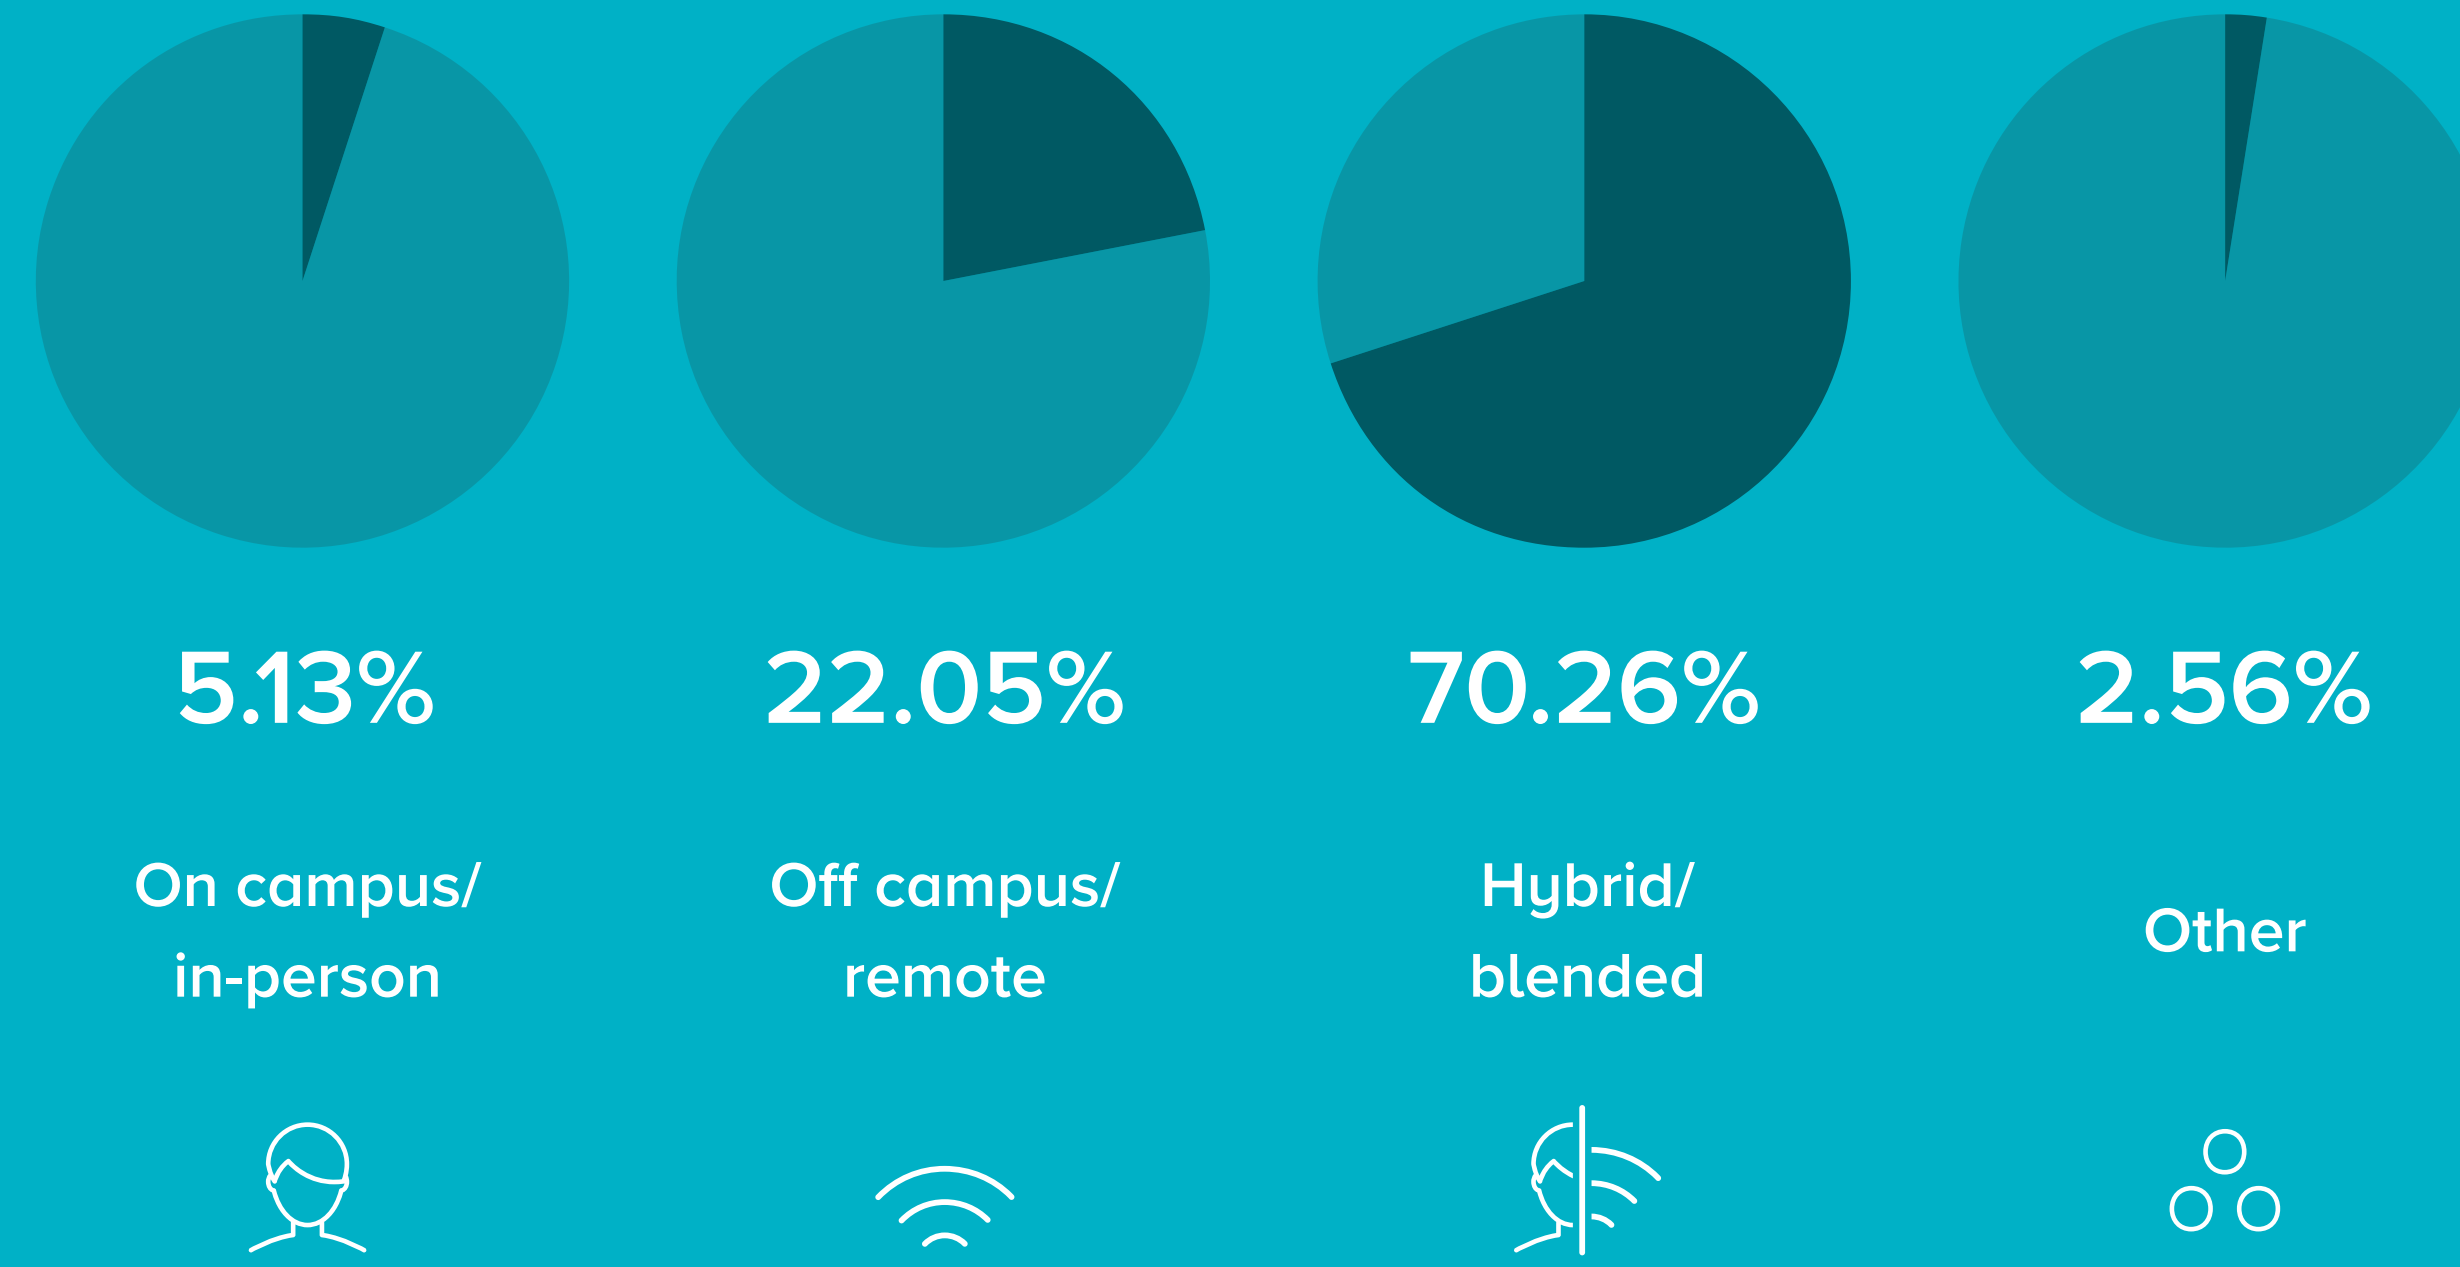

%

In response to COVID-19, did you implement any of the following new technologies or solutions?

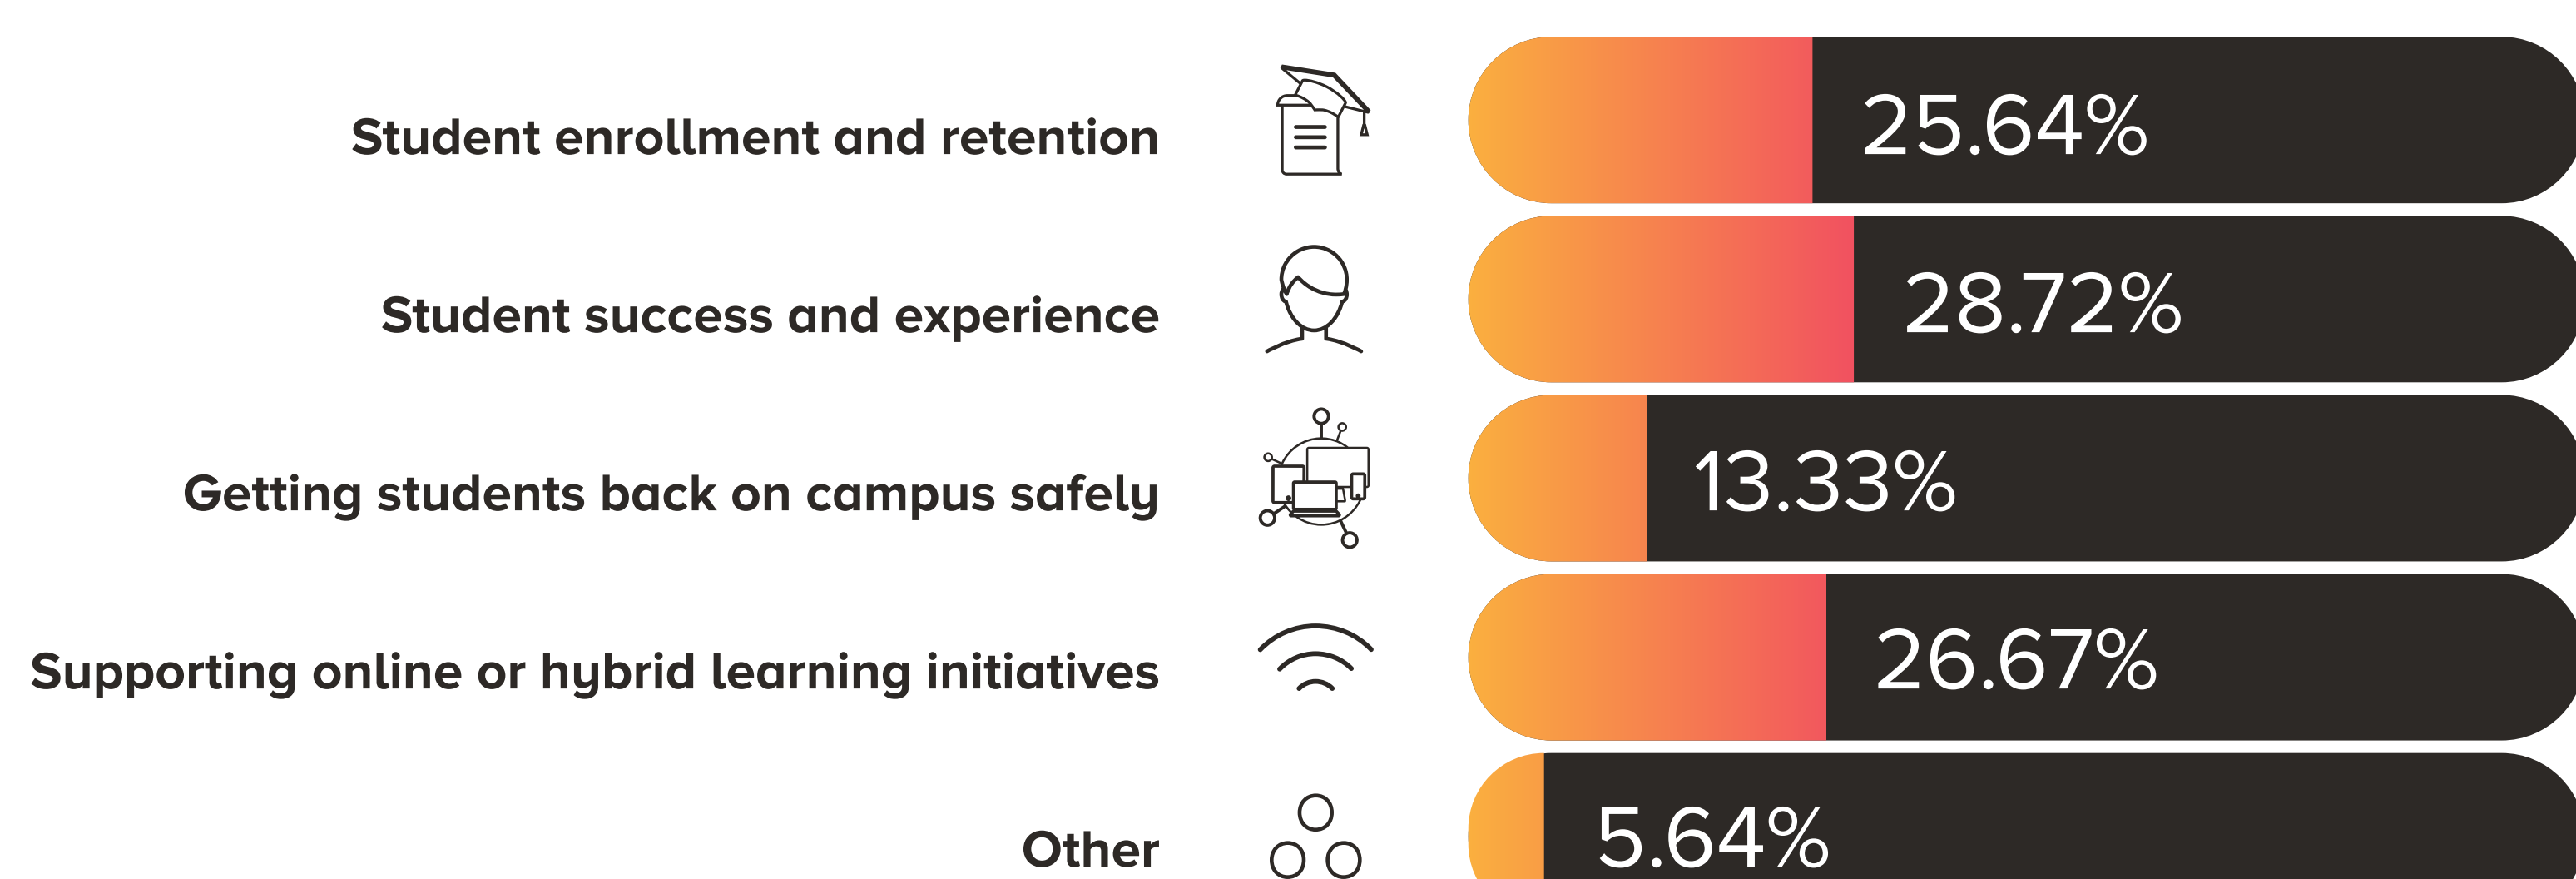

What best describes the new academic year at your university?

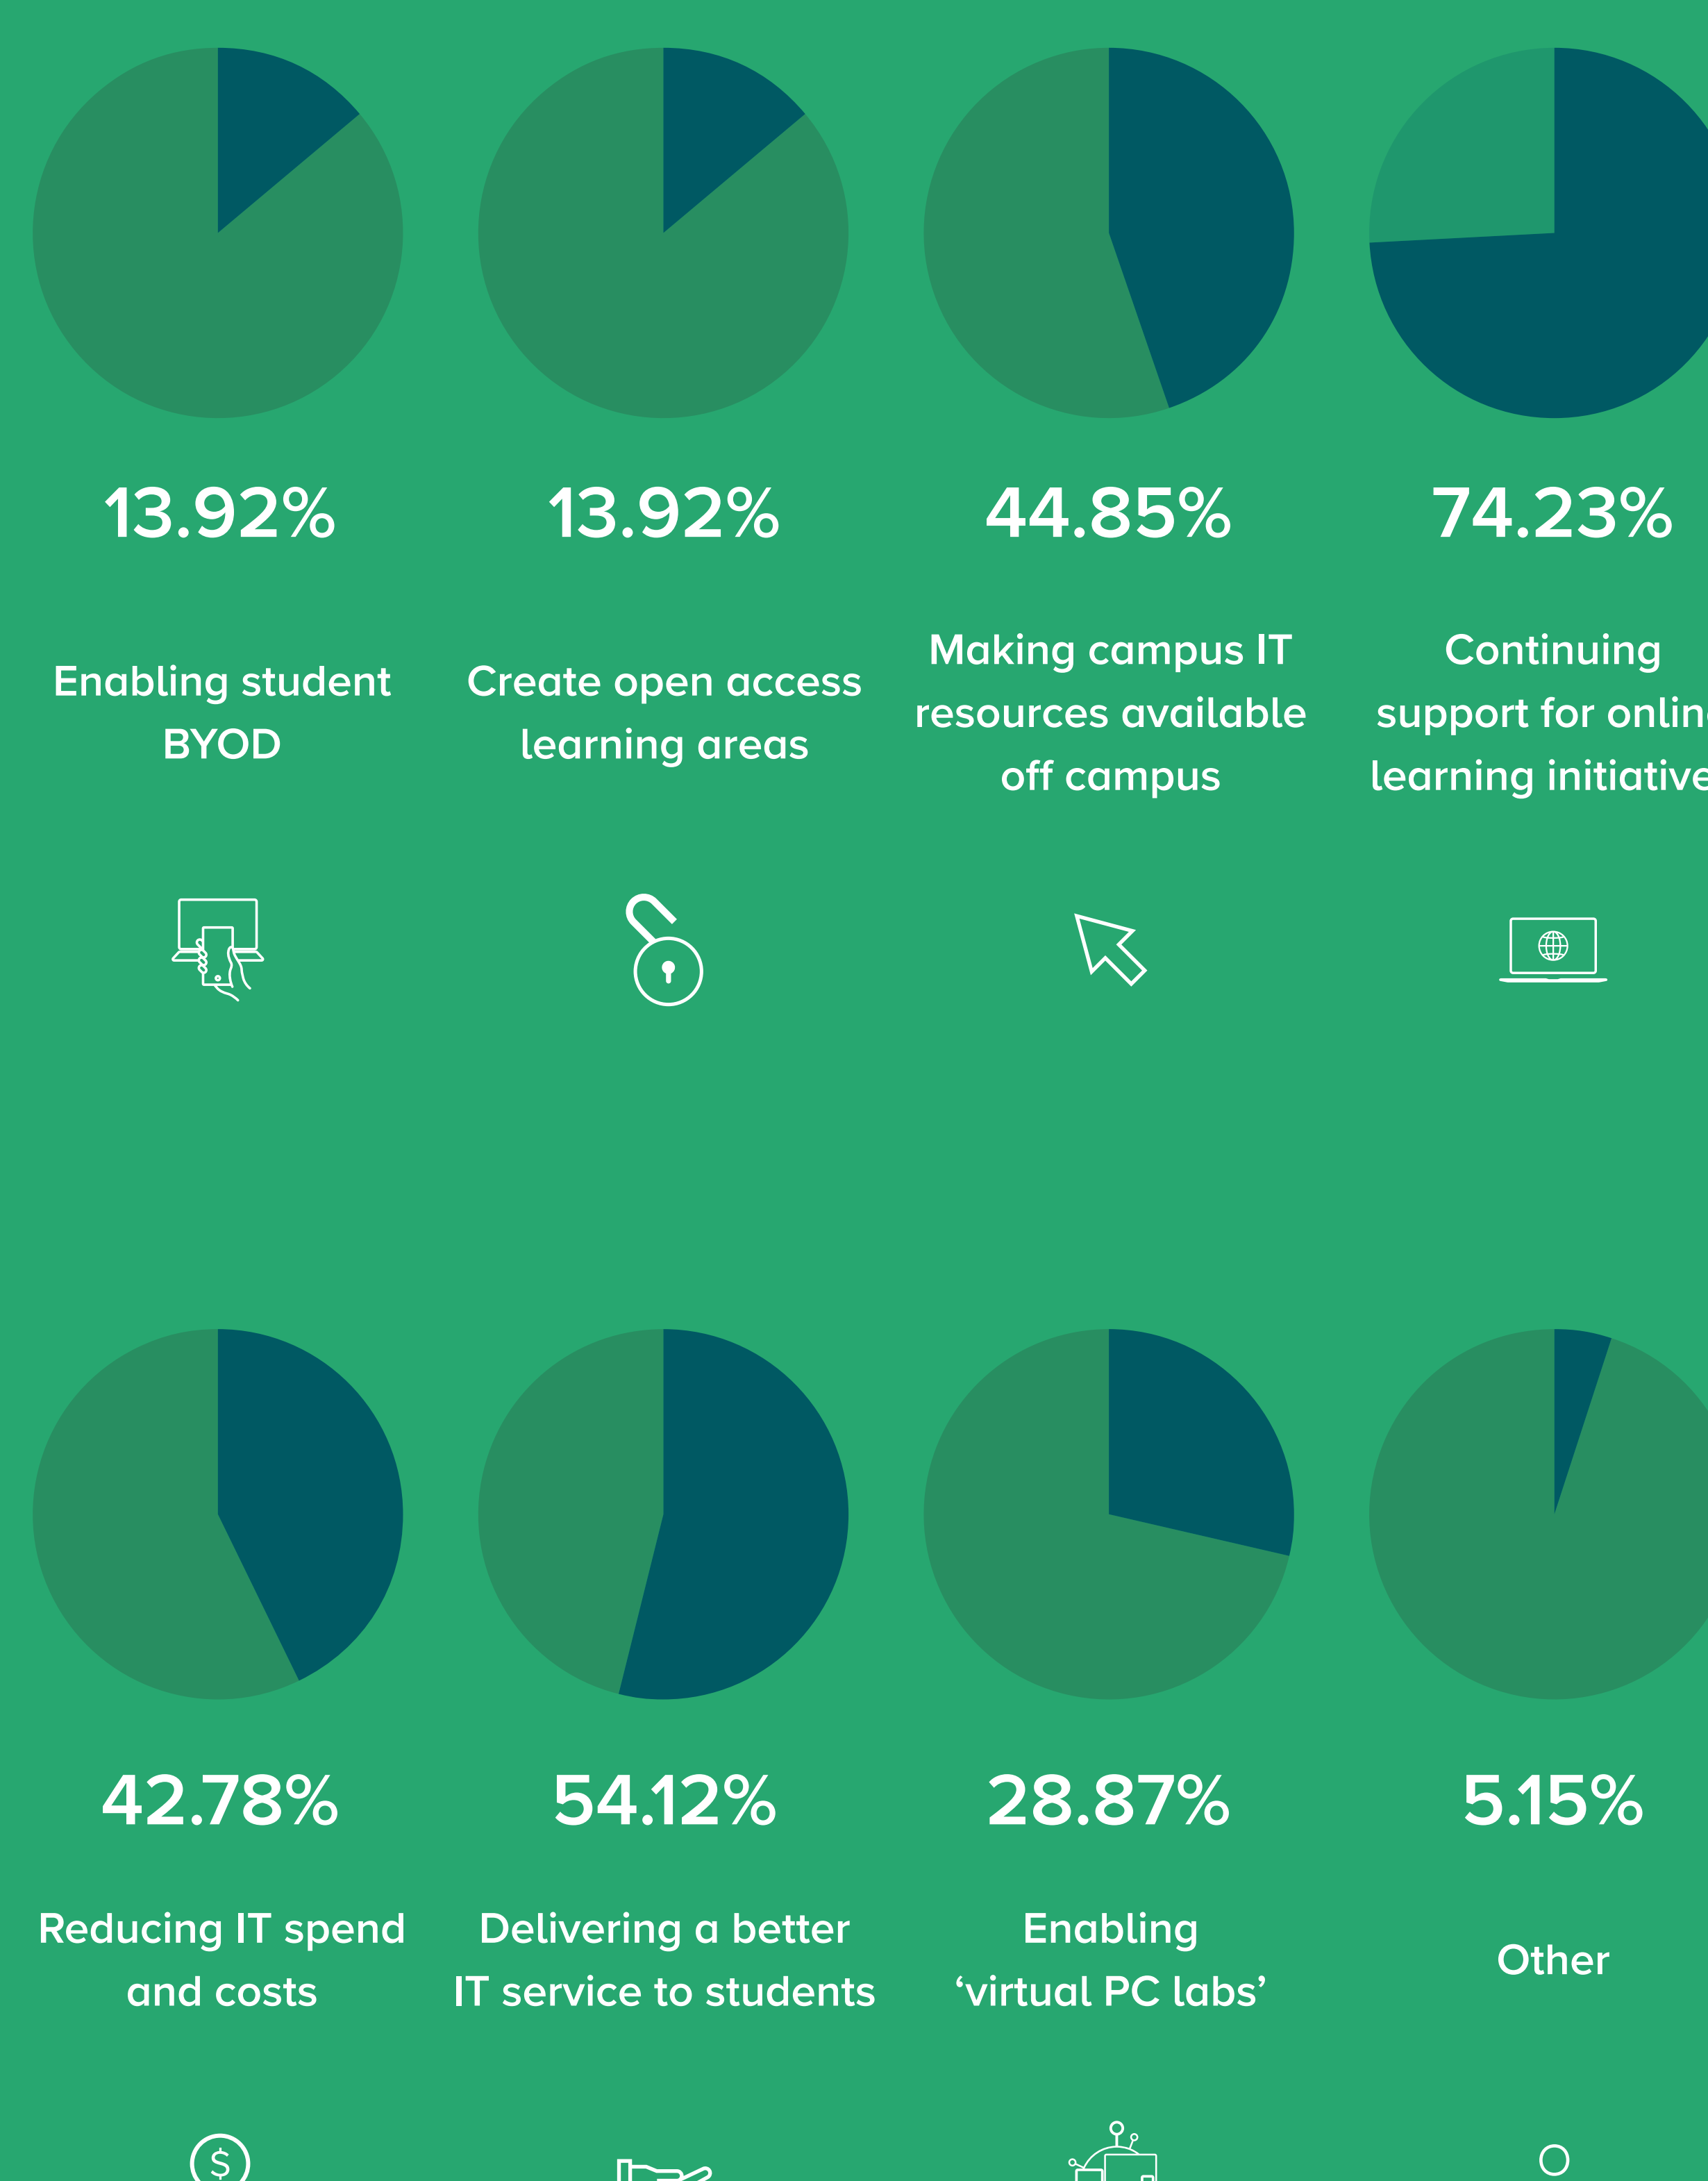

%

What's your university's biggest priority right now?

Are you looking to solve any of the below IT challenges in the next 6-12 months?

%

Do you plan to implement any new technologies or IT solutions in the next 6-12 months?

When looking for a new technology or IT solution for your university, which of the following deployment options would you prefer?

